

U-N-I-T H-I-S-T-O-R-Y

The 695th Medical Collecting Company was constituted 22 July 1944 and was activated at Camp Bowie, Texas on 15 August 1944.

On 11 December 1944, the 695th Medical Collecting Company was redesignated and reorganized as the 695th Ambulance Company, Motor.

The 695th Ambulance Company, Motor departed from Camp Bowie, Texas 18 February 1945. Enroute to permanent overseas station, arriving at the staging area at Camp Shank, New York on 21 February 1945.

On 27 February 1945, the 695th Ambulance Company, Motor departed Continental United States on the Argentina and arrived in France 11 March 1945.

The 695th Ambulance Company, Motor served with the 1st Army in combat until 11 April 1945, at which time it was redesignated as the 695th Motor Ambulance Company and continued to serve with the first Army in the Central European Campaign until 11 May 1945.

On 13 May 1945 the 695th Motor Ambulance Company was alerted for transfer from the European Theater of Operations to the Southwest Pacific Area. The unit departed from France on 21 June 1945 on the General Bundy and arrived at Manila, Philippine Islands on 30 July 1945,

The 695th Motor Ambulance Company was inactivated on 3 February 1946

The 695th Motor Ambulance Company was redesignated 695th Medical Company (Ambulance)(Separate) and allotted to the Regular Army; assigned to United States Army Europe and further assigned to the Seventh Army.

The 695th Medical Company (Ambulance)(Separate) was activated at Francois Kaserne in Hanau, Germany on 6 January 1955.

*sent by ltr, 14ps 695th Med Co (Amb X Sep) APO 165; 6
Oct 55; thru C's 38th Med Bn, to CH 7A, Subj: Transmittal of Unit Hist*